mission in lunacy to examine Charles E. Chapin. Notice of the application was served on District Attorney Swann yesterday by Abe Levy, counsel for Chapin, who was formerly city editor of the Evening World. He murdered his wife, Nellie, in the Cumberland Hotel on September 16. Assistant District Attorney Alfred J. Talley will oppose the motion. Mr. Levy declares in his application that Chapin was mentally irresponsible at the time of the commission of the crime and that he is suffering from a dread malady. Mr. Talley said: "If this application is denied I shall move that the trial of Chapin be put on the preferred calendar, so that we can proceed with the trial without delay. The district attorney's office wishes to demonstrate that a man's prominence will not prevent his being promptly brought to answer for his crime, and that a plea of insanity cannot be interposed for a most atrocious murder."

BUYS $500 BOND TO AVENGE BROTHER

Simultaneously with the report on the War Department casualty list that Private Dial H. Elkins, twenty-two years old, had been "wounded," degree undetermined, Raymond D. Elkins, the soldier's brother, who has already bought $500 worth of Liberty bonds of the fourth loan, announced that he will take another $500 worth if any one in the city will match him.

Dial H. Elkins, who served two years as clerk to the captain of police at the Capitol, enlisted in the marines last February and was sent to Paris Island. He qualified as an expert marksman while on duty there, and sailed from Philadelphia for the front on August 5. He was wounded on September 12.

Raymond D. Elkins is awaiting replies to his challenge at his home, 2421 Eighteenth street northwest. Owing to the fact that he is suffering from influenza, he urges that reply be made by mail or telephone. His phone number is Columbia 5684.

ADVERTISING. Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

TELLS SAFE AND SIMPLE WAY TO TREAT AND RELIEVE AT HOME.

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises caused by catarrh, or if phlegm drops in your throat and has caused catarrh of the stomach or bowels you will be glad to know that these distressing symptoms may be entirely overcome in many instances by the following treatment which you can easily prepare in your own home at little cost. Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Parmit (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it 1 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. An improvement is sometimes noted after the first day's treatment. Breathing should become easy, while the distressing head noises, headaches, dizziness, cloudy thinking, etc., should gradually disappear under the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell, taste, defective hearing and mucous drooping in the back of the throat are other symptoms which suggest the presence of catarrh and which may often be overcome by this efficacious treatment. It is said that nearly ninety per cent. of all ear troubles are caused by catarrh, and there must, therefore, be many people whose hearing may be restored by this simple, harmless, home treatment.

K. C. B.'s TOWN TOPICS

I CAN remember.
WHEN I was a kid.
BACK IN Orillia.
THAT THERE was a GANG.
LIVED DOWN near the tannery.
AND ALL the time.
THE GANG I was in.
KEPT HAVING trouble.
WITH THE tannery gang.
AND THE names we'd call them.
AND THEY'D call us.
WERE SOMETHING awful.
AND ALL the time.
THEY'D WANT to fight.
AND IT came winter.
AND WE all built forts.
AND I can remember.
THAT THE tannery gang.
BUILT A great big fort.
ON THE edge of the common.
AND ONE Saturday morning.
MY BIG brother.
GOT OUR gang.
AND WE started to fight.
WITH THE tannery gang.
AND WE soon found out.
THAT THE tannery gang.
WAS PUTTING stones.
INSIDE THE snowballs.
WHICH SO far as we knew.
WAS AGAINST the law.
OF SNOWBALL warfare.
BUT ANYWAY.
WE KEPT getting closer.
TO THE tannery fort.
AND WE just kept fighting.
AND DRILLING on.
AND IN a little while.
THE TANNERY GANG.
STUCK UP a handkerchief.
NAILED TO a stick.
AND WE knew then.
THAT THEY wanted to quit.
AND WE all cheered.
EXCEPT MY brother.

AND ANOTHER boy.
AND THEY . . .
"NOT ON yer life!"
"WE'RE GOING to beat those guys."
"SO THEY'LL go back to the tannery."
"AND STAY there."
"FOR THE rest of their lives."
"AND WE'LL wreck the fort."
"AND THE whole cheese!"
"COME ON you kids!"
AND IN five minutes.
YOU'D NEVER have known.
THERE'D BEEN a fort.
AND THAT tannery gang.
WAS BEAT to a pulp.
AND WE'D caught the leader.
AND MADE him play dead.
AND SIT up and bark.
AND EVERYTHING else.
AND AFTER that.
WE MARCHED around.
AND OUR little brothers.
WERE IN the parade.
BECAUSE WHILE we were fighting.
AND TAKING the fort.
THEY WERE packing snowballs.
AS HARD as they could.
AND AS fast as they could.
AND BRINGING them to us.
IN THEIR caps.
OR IN other words.
THEY STAYED in the rear.
AND BOUGHT Liberty bonds.
AND THEY had a right.
TO MARCH with us.
WHEN THE war was over.
I THANK you.

ATTACK LOAN; ARRESTED

DAYTON, Ohio, Oct. 18.—Charged with having made speeches against the purchase of Liberty bonds, at a meeting of socialists in Piqua, Mayor Frank B. Hamilton, Councilman Louis H. Neff, and Safety Director Herman Grunert were arraigned before United States Commissioner Howell.

SMITE FOE WITH BONDS, SAYS KAHN

NEWARK, Oct. 18.—Otto H. Kahn the banker, issued a statement yesterday calling upon Americans of German descent to do their part in smiting Kaiserism through the medium of Liberty loan subscriptions. "We men of German descent," he said, "have a special reckoning to make with Kaiserism. The whole world has been wronged and hurt by Prussianized Germany as it was never wronged and hurt before. But the hurt done to us is the deepest of all. Our spiritual inheritance has been stolen from us by impious hands and flung into the gutter. The ideals and traditions which we cherished have been foully besmirched. Our blood has been dishonored. We have been bitterly shamed by our very kith and kin. The land to which we were linked by fond memories has been made an outcast among the nations, convicted of high treason against civilization and of unspeakable crimes against humanity. "Over and above all others, we have a grievance to avenge: we have an account to settle. And America's soldiers of German blood, together with their comrades of native blood and of the blood of many other races, will see to it that, under God, that account is paid and settled in full." The large percentage of German names in the list of casualties of the American army, said Mr. Kahn, demonstrates that American soldiers of German descent have known how best to demolish the German government's outrageous hope which basely calculated upon their disloyalty, and to resent the vile insult which apprised them as semi-traitors to the country of their sworn allegiance.

TISZA'S CHAUFFEUR BLOCKS ASSASSIN

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 18.—As Count Stephen Tisza, former Hungarian premier, was leaving the lower house of Parliament at Budapest Wednesday, a youth approached his motor car with a revolver, according to a dispatch received here from the Hungarian capital. Count Tisza's chauffeur struck the would-be assassin down before he was able to fire. Count Tisza's assailant was arrested. He gave his name as Lejter, and said he was twenty-one years of age and an official in the food department. He said he had intended to attack Admiral Paul von Hintze, whose resignation as German secretary for foreign affairs recently was reported, during his visit to Budapest, but that Admiral von Hintze had left before he was able to accomplish his purpose.

NAME TWIN "RED" CROSS

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—There is a popular young clerk in one of the big downtown banks named Cross. He was in the first draft. In filling out his questionnaire he wrote in answer to the query as to whether he had any children, "One expected." But instead of one, two arrived. Like the father, both were red-headed. Mr. and Mrs. Cross, with a sense of fitness and humor, have called them Red Cross and Chris Cross.
